Death of an Aged Lady

The little village of Waynesville was saddened on the 4th Inst. by the announcement of the death of Miss Jane Johnson, and amiable Christian lady of that place. She died on her 90th birthday. The deceased was a sister of Mrs. McNish, the mother of Mrs. Leighton W. Hazlehurst, of Waynesville. In her death the community has lost a worthy member and the church a warm supporter, but she has gained her crown.
