C.L. CHANDLER DIES ON ISLAND

Charles Lee (Pop) Chandler, 68-year-old resident of St. Simons, was found dead in his room at the county casino yesterday afternoon. A physician attributed his death to a heart attack.

Funeral services were held at the graveside in Christ Church Yard, Frederica, this afternoon at 3 o'clock with the Rev. King I. Evans, pastor of the First Baptist Church of St. Simons, officiating. The Miller Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Mr. Chandler, who had been a resident of St. Simons for the past 10 years, was employed by the county at the casino bowling alleys. He came to St Simons from Atlanta, Ga. Survivors include one son, Charles Lee Chandler, Jr., Burlington, N.C., and several brothers and sisters.

Pallbearers were: Walter Zachary, Fred Fischel, Lamar Davis, Hoke Wells, J.M. Kent and Brantley O'Quinn.
