Hoyt Gale Died Wednesday in Cleveland, Ohio

Telegrams were received in the city today announcing the death yesterday in Cleveland, Ohio, of Hoyt W. Gale, former prominent Brunswick resident, who had made his home in Ohio for many years. His death was attributed to a heart attack.

Mr. Gale was born in Brunswick, member of a well known Glynn county family, and he spent all of his younger life in this city. Many years ago he removed to West Virginia, where he resided for a few years, later removing to Cleveland, where he engaged in the general insurance business, in which he was unusually successful.

Although he had not resided in Brunswick for many years, he had spent much of his time here in recent years. Mr. Gale purchased a handsome home on St. Simons Island, which he occupied for a number of winters. Selling it a few years ago, he purchased another home on Sea Island, and he and members of his family have since been spending the winters at that resort.

Mr. Gale is survived by his wife, the former Miss Louise Purse, of Waycross, and five children, Miss [illegible] and Dave, Ben, Frank and Willoughby Gale. Telegrams received here did not give funeral arrangements.
