

Julius McDonald

The Brunswick News; Tuesday 18 July 1995; pg. 3A col. 6

SERVICE WEDNESDAY FOR L. McDONALD

A graveside service for Lennie McDonald will be 11 a.m. Wednesday at Christ Church with the Rev. Joe Glisson officiating.

Honorary pallbearers will be employees of the Brunswick City Police and Glynn County Police Department, employees of WGIG and WYNR radio stations, Ray White, Larry Dean Hickerson and Jack Pride Hardman.

The family requests memorials be made to Youth Estate.

Surviving are two sons, Tracy McDonald of St. Simons Island and Patrick McDonald of Sarasota, Fla.; two brothers, John Scott McDonald of Fort Worth, Texas, and Bruce McDonald of St. Simons.

The St. Simons native was a graduate of Glynn Academy and attended the University of South Carolina and the Sarasota School of Art. He was a veteran of the Vietnam War, serving in the U.S. Marine Corps. After residing in Wilmington for the last several years, McDonald had lived in Glynn County the past two months and was employed with WYNR.

Chapman Funeral Chapel is in charge of arrangements.