

Beverly Nemanic

The Brunswick News; Tuesday 16 August 2005; online article

Beverly Wright Nemanic, 59, of Walnut Creek, Calif., died August 10, 2005. She graduated from the Lovett School in Atlanta in 1963 and from the College of William and Mary in 1967. Beverly spent many years as a well-known travel agent in Atlanta, Washington D.C., and later, in Berkeley, Calif. She was known for her wonderful travel advice, having traveled the world extensively.

Beverly died of lung cancer after a valiant six-year struggle. Her family requests, in lieu of flowers, contributions be made to the American Cancer Society.

Beverly is survived by her husband, Michael Nemanic of Walnut Creek; her stepchildren, Peter and Sarah; her grandchildren, Shout and Nico; her son, Evan Clark of McLean, Va.; her parents, Ruth and Lew Wright of St. Simons Island; her brother and sister-in-law, Don and Joy Wright of St. Simons Island; and her niece and nephew Melissa Wright Roberts and Hunter Wright, both of Atlanta.

A memorial service will be held at a later date to be announced.

Interment will follow at Christ Episcopal Church Cemetery on St. Simons Island.
