

Lyman Edgy

The Brunswick News; Tuesday 3 November 1964; pg. 12 col. 2

LYMAN E. EDGY TAKEN Y DEATH

Lyman E. Edgy, 73, died early today at the Brunswick hospital following a brief illness.

Edgy was a resident of the Waycross Highway. He had lived in Glynn County for the past 30 years, coming here from Brantley County.

He is survived by his wife; three daughters, Mrs. Harry Rowe and Mrs. J.C. Davis of Brunswick, Mrs. D.F. Walker of Waynesville; four sons, J.W. Edgy, Cecil Edgy, Carlyle Edgy and Wilton Edgy, all of Brunswick; 14 grandchildren and three great grandchildren; four brothers, W.T. Edgy of Brunswick, Lester Edgy, Nahunta, Elliott and Henry Edgy of Waynesville; four sisters, Mrs. Tom Arnett, Mrs. W.G. O'Quinn, Mrs. Stanley Higginbotham and Mrs. L.E. Chapman, Sr. all of Brunswick.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow at 3 p.m. in the Chapel of the Gibson-Hart-Durden Funeral Home with the Rev. Henry K. Neal and the Rev. Roy Russell of Jesup officiating. Interment will be in the Davis Cemetery on the Waycross Highway.

Active pallbearers will be E.P. Edgy, J.H. Carter, A.L. Wooten, E.J. Wilson L.E. Chapman, and Robert C. Edgy.

Honorary: Melvin DePratter, Rev. Reginald Drury, Guy Lucas, Floyd Robinson, Elmo Kelly, Howard Middleton, B.Z. Rozier, J.M. Walker, Lester R. Harrison, Burell A. Russell, Burell Atkinson, E.M. Wainwright, A.R. Rozier, J.O. Mikell, T. Earl Davis, E.M. Ogden, J.C. Darley, Perry Middleton and George Milles.