STEVEN D. HOLLEY DIES IN MISSOURI

Former Brunswick resident Steven Daniel Holley, 30, of St. Louis, Mo., died Jan. 20.

A memorial service was held Jan. 25 at Pilgrim Congregational Church in St. Louis and Jan. 29 at New Hope Southern Congregational Church.

Surviving are his parents, Leon and Betty Holley of Brunswick; three brothers, Judson Holley and Bruce Holley, both of Brunswick, and Gary Holley of Atlanta; and a sister, Diane Holley of Brunswick.

The Brunswick native graduated from Glynn Academy in 1961 and was also a graduate of University of South Alabama in Mobile, Ala. He served as pianist/organist for many local churches.

For the past two years, he served as music director/organist at Pilgrim Congregational Church in St. Louis. He had also served as staff organist in several Kansas City, Mo., churches, as a member of the teaching staff at St. Paul School of Theology in Kansas City, and as a graduate teaching assistant at the University of Missouri-Kansas City Conservatory of Music.
