

William Davis

The Brunswick News; Friday 17 February 1984; pg. 3A col. 1

SERVICES FOR WILLIAM DAVIS TO BE SATURDAY

Services for William "Bill, Sarge" Davis Jr., a former Emery Enterprises employee, will be at 1 p.m. Saturday at St. Andrews CME Church. Burial will be in Greenwood Cemetery.

Davis died Feb. 10 at the V.A. Medical Center hospital in Lake City, Fla.

A native of Baker County and a resident of Brunswick since 1951, he was an Army veteran of World War II.

Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Earlene G. Davis of Brunswick; a son, William Davis III of Brunswick; three stepdaughters, Mrs. Sabrina L. Grovner, Mrs. Joyce G. Walker and Mrs. Angelia M. Grovner, all of Brunswick; two sisters, Mrs. Missie Bolden of Newton and Mrs. Hattie Broughton of Brunswick; five brothers, Clifton Davis, Marcus Davis, Ulysses Bailey, Cleo Shinard and C. James Johnson, all of Brunswick; and five stepgrandchildren [sic].

Services will be conducted by the Rev. Leroy Dumas and pallbearers will be the Davis' nephews.

The family will be at the residence of Mrs. Earlene G. Davis, 2319 Cleburne St.

Collins' Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.