ROBERT HEIDT JR. SERVICE TUESDAY

A memorial service for former resident Robert Heidt Jr., 63, of Durham, N.C., will be 1 p.m. Tuesday at First Jordan Grove Baptist Church with the Rev. T.L. Davis officiating. Burial with full military honors will be in Greenwood Cemetery.

He died Dec. 27 at his residence.

Pallbearers will be a military detail from Fort Stewart. Honorary pallbearers will be members of the Risley High School Class of 1952.

The body will be placed in the church one hour prior to service.

Surviving are his wife, Rose M. Heidt of Durham; a daughter, Debra A. Heidt of Brunswick; a son, Robert Heidt III of Durham; three adopted sons, Willie Heidt, Kendrell Heidt and Antwon Heidt, all of Durham; three brothers, Nathaniel Heidt of Darien, William Vaughn of Brunswick and Edward Johnson of Manhattan, N.Y.; three grandchildren, two great-grandchildren and several other relatives.

The Brunswick native lived in New Jersey before moving to Durham in 1991. He was a 1952 graduate of Risley High School and was a U.S. Air Force Veteran. Heidt was a retired tax collector for Jersey City, N.J., and was a Mason.

Collins' Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.
