

George Robinson

The Brunswick News; Friday 9 January 2004

George Frederick Robinson, 51, of Annandale, Va., and formerly of Glynn County, died Sunday in Manassas, Va.

Mr. Robinson, a native of Glynn County, was educated in the public school system and played football for Risley. He attended Fort Valley College and Devry Institute. Mr. Robinson served in the U.S. Navy on the USS Saratoga. He was a member of Payne Chapel AME where he sang in the choir. Mr. Robinson moved to Manassas where he joined the Temple of Jesus Church.

A funeral service will be held at 11 a.m. Saturday at Payne Chapel AME Church with the Rev. R. Hutcherson officiating. Burial will follow in Greenwood Cemetery.

The family will receive friends from 7 to 8 p.m. today in the Magnolia Memorial Chapel of Brunswick Funeral Home.

Pallbearers will be Sedrick Frazier, Mario Dallas, Derrick Dallas, Brent Wright, George A. Chambers, and Wan D. Robinson.

Honorary pallbearers will be Payne Chapel AME Church members, Temple of Jesus Church members, classmates and friends.

Surviving are his mother, Corinne Flanders Robinson of Brunswick; two sons, Wan Robinson and George Anthony Chambers, both of Brunswick; a daughter, Shavaughn Robinson of Brunswick; a sister, Thomasina Robinson Gore of Manassas; a brother, George Johnson of Dorchester, Mass.; two aunts; five grandchildren; and other family.

CITE THIS RECORD

GenealogyBank.com

(<https://www.genealogybank.com/doc/obituaries/obit/15DF5E3DABCFE1A0-15DF5E3DABCFE1A0> : accessed 6 January 2020)