

Scotia White

The Brunswick News; Thursday 22 December 1988; pg. 3A col. 5

WHITE FUNERAL TO BE FRIDAY

The funeral for Scotia Mack White, 82, of Brunswick will be held Friday. He died Dec. 17 at Medical Arts Center of Coastal Georgia.

The 1 p.m. rites will be held at St. Ignatius Episcopal Church on St. Simons Island. The Rev. W.T. Fitzgerald will officiate. Interment will be at Greenwood Cemetery.

Pallbearers will be men of the family.

He is survived by a daughter, Regina W. Gregory of Columbia, Md.; a son, James Scotia White, Sr. of Brunswick; seven grandchildren; four great-grandchildren; seven nephews and several other relatives.

He was a lifelong resident of Glynn County. He was a retired, self-employed businessman, and also retired from the King and Prince Hotel. He was a member of St. Ignatius Episcopal Church.

The family will be at he residence, 117 Yorktown Drive.

Collins' Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.