Funeral Set Sunday for Columbus Hippard

The funeral for Columbus Hippard, of the Brookman Community, Brunswick, will be held Sunday at 1 p.m. in the Springfield Baptist Church in Brookman with the Rev. Enoch Lee officiating. Burial will follow in the Hippard Cemetery.

Hippard died Tuesday at the Glynn-Brunswick Memorial Hospital.

Active pallbearers will be Freddie Dunham, Jeffrey Hippard, Earl Hippard, Roy Miller, Glenn Maxwell, and Byron Gamble.

Honorary pallbearers will be deacons of the Springfield Baptist Church and officers of the district union.

Surviving are his wife, Lula Mae Hippard of Brunswick; one daughter, Margie Hippard Clinch of Brunswick; one brother, Andrew Hippard of Brunswick; one sister, Fannie Warrick of Miami, Fla.; four granddaughters, five great-grandchildren; several nieces and nephews, and other relatives.

Hippard was a lifelong resident of Glynn County and a member of the Springfield Baptist Church. He was past superintendent of the Sunday school, a member of the church building committee and chairman of the deacon board for more than a decade. He also was vice-president of the district union and was an active member of the Democratic Club.

Collins' Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.
