MRS. ALEXANDER DIED YESTERDAY

Mrs. Mary E.J. Alexander, 65, for many years as well known character in Brunswick, died at the City Hospital yesterday morning. She was removed to the hospital for treatment on Friday, and her condition was such that there was no chance for her recovery.

The deceased has resided in Brunswick practically all of her life and for many years made her home with Mrs. G.E. Walton. She was a well known and familiar character and was generally known as "Zander."

Funeral services were held from the Catholic church at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, with Mortician Miller in charge, and interment was in Oak Grove cemetery, where she was buried beside her late husband, Capt. Charles Alexander.
