

William Anderson

The Brunswick News; Monday 22 July 1940; pg. 8 col. 2

WM. C. ANDERSON, LOCAL RESIDENT, DIED LAST NIGHT

William C. Anderson, local architect and building contractor who had resided in Brunswick all of his life, died last night in a Savannah hospital. Mr. Anderson had been ill for only a short time having entered the Savannah hospital a few days ago.

He was born in Brunswick September 10, 1862, and had spent his entire life in this city, where he was known among a large circle of friends. He was the son of the late William H. and Alethia I. Anderson, pioneer Brunswick residents. Until a number of years ago Mr. Anderson was active in his business, and at one time operated what was known as Anderson's planing mill at Cochran avenue and Mansfield street.

Surviving are two sisters, Mrs. Ella Anderson Winter and Mrs. Mary Anderson Causey, both of Savannah and former local residents, and one nephew, Alfonse Winter, of Dothan, Ala.

Funeral services will be held at Miller's funeral parlors here tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock. The body will remain in Savannah until tomorrow morning when it will be accompanied here by relatives. Following services at the funeral parlor, burial will be in the family lot at Oak Grove cemetery.

The following will serve as pallbearers: Dr. J.W. Simmons, B.F. Mann, Frank Stacey, Nat Nightingale, Millard Reese and R.A. Gould.

Published: 7/22/1940