

Leila Atkinson

Historical Newspapers, Birth, Marriage, & Death Announcements, 1851-2003; The Atlanta Constitution; 8 November 1902

MRS. S.C. ATKINSON DIES-Wife of Prominent Brunswick Man Succumbs to Illness

Mrs. Samuel Carter Atkinson, the wife of Judge Atkinson, of Brunswick, died at the Halcyon sanitarium yesterday morning, after a long illness. Mrs. Atkinson was a brilliant woman of magnetic personality and brilliant accomplishments. She combined with a wonderful Christian fortitude a cheerfulness that won for her new and devoted friends even during her long illness that resulted in her death. As the daughter of John Screven, of Savannah, she was noted not only for her distinguished lineage, but for her exceptional versatility of talents as well. She was married to Judge Atkinson in 1886 in Marietta. She leaves besides a husband one daughter to mourn her loss.

The remains were removed to the home of her brother in law, Judge Spencer R. Atkinson, at 618 Piedmont avenue, and afterwards to Brunswick for interment.

Published: 11/08/1902