

Raphael Borchardt

The Brunswick News; Wednesday 4 January 1928; pg. 6 col. 5

R. Borchardt's Funeral Today

The funeral of Raphael Borchardt, well known Brunswick business man who passed away at his home early yesterday morning, was held at noon today from the family home in the Brailey Apartments on Gloucester street. Dr. Solomon, of Savannah, conducted the services and the interment was in Oak Grove cemetery.

A large number of friends of this well known citizen gathered at his home to pay a last tribute of respect. Rathbone lodge, Knights of Pythias, of which he was a member for many years, attended in a body.

Published: 1/04/1928