MRS. W.H. BUNKLEY, AN OLD RESIDENT, DIES IN FLORIDA

Telegraphic information was received here yesterday announcing the death of Mrs. W.H. Bunkley, 76, for years a resident of this city, who passed away at Vero Beach, where she had been residing temporarily with her daughter, Miss Leila Bunkley, a member of the faculty of the Vero Beach high school.

The deceased had made her home in this city practically all of her life and was known and loved by an unusually large number of friends. She went to Vero Beach about a year ago to make her home with her daughter. She had been ill for only a short time.

Mrs. Bunkley is survived by seven children, as follows: Mrs. E.B. Dudley, of Savannah; R.T. Bunkley and Mrs. McDonald Frazier, of Brunswick; C.A. Bunkley, of West Palm Beach; Miss Leila Bunkley, of Vero Beach; Geo. H. Bunkley, of Tampa, and W.H. Bunkley, of Wilmington, N.C./ and one sister, Mrs. John Sears, Axon, Ga.

The remains accompanied by some of the relatives will arrive here this morning and services will be conducted at 3 o'clock this afternoon at the graveside by the Rev. T.B. Kemp, St. Marys. Interment will be in Oak Grove cemetery under the direction of Edo Miller, mortician.

The following friends will act as pallbearers: J.F. Symons, H.F. duBignon, Dr. H.M. Branham, S.W. Brockington, R.S. Pyles, Millard Reese. The pallbearers are requested to meet at the funeral parlors at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon.
