

John Butler

The Brunswick News; Monday 10 April 1967; pg. 8 col. 6

RITEs HELD TODAY FOR J.L. BUTLER

Services were held today in the chapel of the Edo Miller and Sons Funeral Home for John Lee Butler.

Butler, 57, died Saturday at his residence on St. Simons Island after an extended illness. He was a member of the St. Simons Island Methodist Church, a veteran of World War II, and a member of American Legion Guale Post 166.

Survivors include a daughter, Miss Lee Butler, a brother, Alan Davis Butler, and his mother, Mrs. Sallie Davis Butler, all of St. Simons Island; a son, Wayne Butler of Brunswick; a sister, Mrs. H.C. McMillan of Marietta, several nieces and nephews.

Officiating minister for the funeral was the Rev. Tom Stroud; interment was in Oak Grove Cemetery.

Active pallbearers were Huey Patillo, Horace Rowe, H. Russell Gohen, Alfred Brockinton [sic], Dr. Mack Simmons and C.W. Brantley.

Published: 4/10/1967