

Jane Adele Campbell

The Brunswick News; Monday 1 November 1948; pg. 10 col. 6

DEATH TAKES MRS. JANE CAMPBELL, 85

Mrs. Jane Altham Campbell, 85, former resident of Brunswick, died Saturday at a hospital in Savannah. Funeral services will be held tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock at the St. Francis Xavier Catholic church, with the Rev. John Mercer officiating.

Mrs. Campbell's husband, John Campbell, died here many years ago. She was born in British Guiana, where her father was a physician. Her father was made governor of the Leeward Islands in the West Indies. She was also a niece of Lord William Altham, of England.

An uncle, Dr. H.T. Shiell, was a pioneer physician in Camden county.

Surviving are several cousins, J.A. Shiell, of Brunswick; Mrs. Hattie Bishop, Mrs. Sadie Sheffield, and Mrs. Lawrence Wood, of Jacksonville.

The Rosary will be recited tonight at 8 p.m. at the parlors of the Gibson-Hart funeral home. Interment will be in Oak Grove cemetery.

Published: 11/01/1948