MRS. CAMPBELL DEAD

Mrs. Mary Jane Campbell, wife of Mr. John Campbell, died this morning at 1:30 at her residence, 1604 Gloucester street, after a short illness with cholera morbus. Mrs. Campbell was a sister of Mr. George Cowman, the contractor, and has a large circle of friends. She was a consistent member of the Methodist church. To the bereaved mother and stricken husband THE TIMES-ADVERTISER offers sympathy. The funeral will probably occur Monday.
