BELOVED WOMAN CLAIMED BY DEATH LAST NIGHT -- Miss Henrianna Colesberry Passes Away After Long Illness.

Miss Henrianna Colesberry, one of Brunswick's oldest and most loved women, passed away last night at 6 o'clock at her home on Egmont street after a lingering illness. Her condition has been serious for the past few days and yesterday morning it was announced that she could hardly survive throughout the day.

Miss Colesberry was 74 years of age. She came to Brunswick with her brother, the late Capt. Colesberry, over 40 years ago and has resided in Brunswick almost continuously since that time. She was known and loved by an unusually large circle of friends who will be deeply grieved to learn of her death.

The deceased was the aunt of Mrs. A.V. Wood, of this city; Mrs. R.T. Hitch, of Waycross and Misses Lula, Nellie and Florence Colesberry.

The funeral will occur from the residence tomorrow morning, the exact hour to be announced later. The News joins other friends in extending condolence to the relatives.
