DEATH OF CECIL DART

Brunswick, Ga., December 14 -- (Special) -- Cecil Dart, one of the best known young men in Brunswick, died very suddenly tonight. He was slightly ill, and death came almost without warning. The deceased was a son of Captain Urbanus Dart and brother of Captain Ernest Dart, the latter of whom was drilling his company, the riflemen, a few minutes before his brother died. The news spread rapidly, and many regrets are being expressed.
