MRS. JULIA C. DART DIES HERE SUNDAY

Mrs. Julia Cummings Dart, 93, a resident of 11 Glynn Ave. died Sunday at the Brunswick hospital.

She was a member of one of Brunswick's oldest families and was the widow of Charles Urbanus Dart. She was born in New York City and had been a resident of Brunswick for the past 70 years.

Widowed early in her married life, she attended Massey Business School in Jacksonville, Fla. and was, for many years, secretary to the late Judge Frank Scarlett.

She was a member of First Presbyterian Church and was a Gold Star Mother. Her only child, Maj. John P. Dart, U.S. Army Air Corps was missing in action in 1944.

She is survived by nephews, Judge George Deluca, New York, Norman Duncan, Foster, R.I., Harry Paeglow, Jacksonville, Fla., Jack Peters, Rock Hill, S.C.; nieces, Mrs. Helen Herbert, Lowell, Mass., and locally by nieces, Mrs. Clifford Peters, Mrs. William Lust, and Mrs. Russell Henderson.

The funeral will be Tuesday at 11 a.m. in the First Presbyterian Church with Rev. Dan Thomas officiating. Interment will follow in Oak Grove Cemetery.

Active pallbearers will be Bill Brown, Robert Dart, Russell Henderson, Ed Lambright, Don Peters, Richard Scarlett, and John F. Symons.

Honorary pallbearers will be Julian Bennet, Hoyt Brown, John Gilbert, Fred Fain, Judge Wesley Jernigan, Karl G. Meschke, Lem Morgan, Sr., Judge Phil Ringel, Clyde Taylor Jr., Lucian Whittle, Pierce Thoit and John Harvey.

The body will remain in the funeral home and will be placed in the church an hour prior to services.

Edo Miller & Sons Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.
