

Maruice Dart

The Brunswick News; Saturday 21 December 1935; pg. 8 col. 1

IVAN DART, WELL KNOWN RESIDENT DIED EARLY TODAY

Ivan Dart, 52, well known Brunswick resident, died at the City Hospital at an early hour this morning following an illness of several weeks. Mr. Dart underwent an operation a few weeks ago, but did not improve, and his condition became serious, a second operation being necessary yesterday morning.

Mr. Dart, a marine engineer, had resided in Brunswick all of his life and he was well known and popular among an unusually large number of friends who will be grieved to learn of his death. He was a member of the well known and prominent Glynn county Dart family.

He is survived by one sister, Mrs. Eyla Moodie, of Bookline, Mass., a sister-in-law, Mrs. Julia Dart, of this city, and a number of nieces and nephews and other relatives.

Funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock from the residence on Glynn avenue, conducted by the Rev. L.A. Harrell, pastor of the First Methodist church. Interment will be in Oak Grove cemetery. The pallbearers will be Claude Dart, Horace Symons, John S. Symons, Robert Burford, J.E. Lambright, M.E. Dart. Funeral arrangements are in charge of Mortician Edo Miller.

Published: 11/21/1935