

Malvina Davenport

The Brunswick News; Tuesday 2 August 1932; pg. 8 col. 5

MISS DAVENPORT, AN AGED RESIDENT, DIES HERE TODAY

Miss Mallie R. Davenport, 85 years of age, one of Brunswick's oldest women, who has resided in this city practically all of her life, died today after an illness of three or four weeks. Despite her advanced age Miss Davenport had been in comparatively good health until recently, and was, up to the time of her illness, almost a daily visitor to the business section of the city. She was known by a wide circle of friends.

Miss Davenport was born in South Carolina, but moved to Brunswick when a mere child and has resided here continuously throughout her life. She is the last of a well known Brunswick family.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock from the residence of T.D. Symmes, 1011 Grant street, a nephew of the deceased, conducted by Royal K. Tucker, and interment will be in Oak Grove cemetery. Mortician Edo Miller will be in charge of the funeral and the pall bearers will be the following: C.M. Gowen, Clarence Gowen, E.C. Allen, A.O. Anderson, L.A. Robinson, R.W. Ralston.

Published: 8/02/1932