

Sarah A Davis

The Brunswick News; Thursday 14 February 1924; pg. 1 col. 2

MRS. L.B. DAVIS DIES AT HOME OF DAUGHTER IN ATLANTA YESTERDAY

News was received in Brunswick this morning of the death in Atlanta of Mrs. L.B. Davis, former resident of this city, who has been residing with her daughter, Mrs. H.D. Butler, for several years.

Mrs. Davis was the wife of the late Dr. L.B. Davis, who was at one time one of this city's leading physicians. She was eighty-six years of age. Surviving are four children; Rev. G.A. Davis, of Parrish, Fla.; Mrs. H.D. Butler, of Atlanta; Mrs. T.H. King, of Pensacola, and John A. Davis, of Brunswick, and several grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

The deceased was a devoted mother, a devout Christian and a loyal friend. She was greatly beloved by all who knew her on account of her lovable personality, her interest in the welfare of others. The funeral services will be conducted from the home of her son, J.A. Davis, 1519 Lee street, Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Rev. T.H. Thomson officiating. The burial will take place in Oak Grove cemetery, the following acting as pallbearers: J.J. Vickers, J.W. Simmons, Roy C. Davis, W.F. Symons, John M. Davis and T.K. Mroczkowski.

Published: 2/14/1924