

Louise Doerflinger

The Brunswick News; Thursday 26 March 1936; pg. 8 col. 4

FORMER RESIDENT DIES IN SAVANNAH

Mrs. Louise Carolyn Doerflinger, former prominent resident of Brunswick, who died in Savannah yesterday afternoon, was buried in Oak Grove cemetery here today at noon. Mrs. Doerflinger was the widow of the late F. Joseph Doerflinger, who for many years was a prominent Brunswick business man. She was 82 years of age and was born in Germany. She spent most of her life in Brunswick, but made her home in Savannah after the death of her husband here many years ago. She was a communicant of the Episcopal church.

Funeral services were held at 9:00 o'clock this morning at the chapel of Fox & Weeks, in Savannah, conducted by the Rev. Geoffrey H. Horsfield, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church. The funeral cortege left Savannah immediately after the services, and proceeded to this city. At the cemetery services were conducted by the Rev. royal K. Tucker, the following acting as pallbearers; Judge D.W. Krauss, Julian Bennet, J.T. Powell, H.F. duBignon, Jack Lissner, Colon J. Cogdell, Geo. A. Krauss, Lee Krauss. Local arrangements were in charge of the Gibson Hart Funeral Home.

Mrs. Doerflinger is survived by four daughters, Mrs. W.H. Leopold, Mrs. W.B. Scott and Miss Amelia Doerflinger, of Savannah, and Mrs. E.D. Evans of Jacksonville.

Published: 3/26/1936