

Martha Evans

The Brunswick News; Thursday 11 January 1917; pg. 1 col. 2

LOVABLE BRUNSWICK LADY PASSED AWAY YESTERDAY-After Suffering Long a Period, Mrs. M.S. Evans Expires

After bearing her sufferings for years, with fortitude, Mrs. M.S. Evans breathed her last early yesterday morning at the residence of her son, Thomas Evans, 414 Albany street, and while the death was expected it was a source of great grief to her relatives and many friends.

Deceased was born on Cumberland Island in 1845, making her seventy-two years of age and since her early womanhood has resided in Brunswick and has always been a devout member of the Catholic church, always ready to serve her church, her loved ones and her friends.

Mrs. Evans leaves three sons, Thomas and Joseph Evans, of this city, and William Lowe, of Jacksonville. The two former were here when death came while the latter was at his home in the Florida city, reaching here last night to attend the funeral. Mrs. Evans leaves many other relatives among the number is Fred Burgess, of Jacksonville, who accompanied by Mrs. Burgess also reached the city last night.

The funeral will take place 10 this morning from the Catholic church, Father Reis conducting the service and the following will act as pallbearers: J.D. Ross, J.M. Jones, L. Ludwig, Grover C. Allen, James Green, John Green, interment will be in Oak Grove cemetery.

Published: 1/11/1917