

Mary Fahm

The Brunswick News; Tuesday 18 October 1927; pg. 8 col. 4

MRS. M.F. FAHM, AN OLD RESIDENT OF CITY, PASSES AWAY

Mrs. Mollie F. Fahm, 73 years of age, relic of the late Captain Ben A. Fahm, and one of Brunswick's oldest and most beloved women, passed away at her home on Ellis street at 2 o'clock this morning. While Mrs. Fahm has been ill for months, her condition was not considered serious and her death was somewhat sudden. Heart trouble was given as the cause of her death.

The deceased was born in Macon but she had resided in Brunswick practically all of her life, removing to this city when a mere child. She was known and loved by an unusually large circle of friend throughout the city. Hers was a beautiful christian character; for years she had been a member of the First Methodist church, in fact she was one of the oldest living members of that church up to the time of her death. By her sweet and kind disposition, her many traits of character and her love for all that was good and sweet, she made friends of all with whom she was associated.

Mrs. Fahm is survived by one son, Grover Fahm, of this city, two sisters, Mrs. John Sears of Axson, Ga., and Mrs. W.H. Bunkley of Vero Beach, Fla., on niece, Mrs. McDonald Frasier of this city, and a nephew, R.L. Bunkley, of this city.

The funeral was held this afternoon at 4o'clock from the First Methodist church, Rev. W.P. Blevins conducting the services. The pall bearers were R.S. Pyles, T.E. Glover, R.E. Sherman, J.J. Vickers, D.C. Staley, D.W. Krauss.