

Oliver Fish

Advertiser & Appeal; Saturday 24 October 1885; pg. 6 col. 4

DEATH OF MR. O.H. FISH

On Sunday last this gentleman passed away suddenly, the victim of a congestive chill. He was at the breakfast table apparently in good health and spirits, though he had been unwell for several days, and at noon he was a corpse. His death was a shock to our people, he being well known and much liked and respected. His stricken relatives, and especially that aged mother, have our most sincere circumstances. His funeral took place on Monday, and was largely attended. He was interred with military honors by the Riflemen, of which he was a member. Our band, of which he was also at one time a member, participated in the ceremonies.

CARD OF THANKS -- EDITORS ADVERTISER AND APPEAL: -- Please allow us, through your columns, gratefully to acknowledge the kind ministrations of the good people of this city during the brief fatal illness of our son, O.H. Fish. To the band and military company, the ladies making floral offerings, and to the large concourse in attendance at the funeral obsequies, we tender sincere gratitude. The demonstrations of such sympathy will be a treasured memory in connection with the almost crushing bereavement of THE FAMILY.