OLD RESIDENT OF BRUNSWICK DEAD

G.B. Flint, 72 years of age, and a former well known resident of Brunswick, passed away in Anniston, Ala., last night, following an illness of several days. S.W. Goodyear, a nephew of the deceased, left Brunswick Saturday for Anniston in response to a telegram announcing the serious illness of his uncle.

Mr. Flint was a brother of Mrs. C.P. Goodyear, Sr., and years ago made his home in Brunswick. The body will be brought to this city for interment, but definite funeral arrangements had not been completed today. The body is expected to arrive tomorrow morning and the funeral will be held some time during the day.
