FORMER RESIDENT DIES IN SAVANNAH

Mrs. Anna M. Gatchell, widow of Ferdinand Gatchell and former Brunswick resident, died in a Savannah hospital last night and will be buried here this afternoon.

Survivors include one daughter, Mrs. C.E. Cody, Savannah; a son, J.E. Gatchell, Oakland, Cal.; three sisters, Mrs. A.C. Ward, Atlanta; Mrs. W.S. Bell, Knoxville, Tenn., and Mrs. I.R. Wilson, of Jacksonville.

Mrs. Gatchell was well known to a large number of Brunswick's older residents, having resided here for years. Before her marriage she was Miss Anna Matilda Lambricht. She now has a number of nieces and nephews in this city.

Funeral services were held in Savannah this afternoon at 2 o'clock and interment will be in Oak Grove cemetery upon arrival of the funeral cortege here. Mortician Edo Miller is in charge of local arrangements.
