

Levi Goldsmith

The Brunswick News; Saturday 11 March 1916; pg. 1 col. 5

AN OLD CITIZEN PASSES TO REST-L. GOLDSMITH, ILL FOR MANY MONTHS DIED YESTERDAY AFTERNOON

L. Goldsmith, one of Brunswick's oldest and best known citizens, passed away at the residence of J.D. Ross, on Norwich street, where he had rooms, yesterday at 3:25 o'clock, after an illness of two or three years. While Mr. Goldsmith's death came rather sudden, still his condition has been serious for many weeks. HE was, however, up and about his room yesterday, when he was stricken suddenly, passing away in a very short time.

Mr. Goldsmith has been in failing health for many years, and for the past several months he has not left his room.

The deceased was 76 years of age. He was born in New York city, spending his early life in the metropolis. In 1881 he removed to Brunswick, and since that time he has been closely identified with the business interests of the city, always joining in every movement that meant something good for the city of his adoption. For two years he was a member of Brunswick's city council and has occupied other positions of honor and trust in the city.

"Pap" Goldsmith, as he was familiarly called by his hundred [sic] of friends, was a big-hearted jovial man, known by practically every resident of the city. In his death Brunswick loses one of her best known business men, and the members of the family have the sympathy of the entire city. He is survived by three daughters, Mrs. H.L.B. Wiggins, of Savannah; Mrs. A.B. Harby of Sumter, S.C., and Mrs. John C. Lehman of this city.

Funeral arrangements had not been completed last night, but the interment will take place sometime Sunday afternoon. The funeral announcement will be made later.

The Brunswick News; Sunday 12 March 1916; pg. 5 col. 4

FUNERAL TODAY-The funeral of the late L. Goldsmith will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock from the residence of J.D. Ross on Norwich street. Rabbi Solomon of Savannah officiating. The following gentlemen will act as pallbearers: J.C.B. Blitch, J.H. Morgan, R.R. Hopkins, P. Horan, L.H. Haym and N.E. Gillican.

Published: 3/11/1916