CHAS. GOODYEAR DIED THURSDAY IN FLORIDA CITY

Charles P. Goodyear, 28, son of Mrs. C.P. Goodyear, of Sea Island, who spent practically all of his life in Brunswick, died in Tampa, Fla., Thursday night. Funeral services will be held here Monday.

Mr. Goodyear, member of a well known Brunswick family, was born here and attended local public schools. He was a grandson of the late Col. Charles Porter Goodyear, for whom a Brunswick housing project was recently named, and who for years was one of Brunswick's best known residents. His father, the late C.P. Goodyear, Jr., was also a prominent resident of the city for many years. Mr. Goodyear had been residing in Tampa for a number of years. His death, it was stated, followed a short illness.

He is survived by his wife, two children, Judith Lanier, 3; and Charles Porter, 9 months; two sisters, Mrs. J.W. Skipper, of this city, and Mrs. Vassa Cate, Jr., of Miami, and two brothers, Lieut. Cyrus S. Goodyear, U.S. Army, and William Henry Goodyear, Sea Island.

Funeral services will be held at St. Xavier's Catholic church Monday morning at 10 o'clock, to be conducted by the Rev. Father Leo F. Ziebarth, S.M., and burial will be in the family lot in Oak Grove Cemetery. Arrangements are in charge of Mortician Edo Miller.
