

Matilda Greenfield

The Brunswick News; Sunday 14 October 1906; pg. 1 col. 4

AN AGED LADY PASSES AWAY-Mrs. Matilda Greenfield Died After Long, Useful Life.

Mrs. Matilda Greenfield, who was reported so ill in The News yesterday morning, passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H.B. Randolph on A street yesterday morning shortly after 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Greenfield was one of the oldest residents of Brunswick, being in her ninetieth year. She has resided here during all the latter part of her life, and was known and loved by a wide circle of friends. She has been very ill for some time and the end was expected at any moment.

The funeral will occur this afternoon at 3 o'clock, the interment to be in Oak Grove cemetery. Mrs. Greenfield was a member of the Episcopal church, but as there is no Episcopal minister in the city, the funeral will occur from the Second Advent church, Rev. C.P. Thornton officiating. Ministers of the city are requested to make this announcement from their respective pulpits this morning. The following gentlemen will act as pall bearers: J.T. Lambright, J.E. Dart, H.J. Read, J.W. Collins, J.J. Spears, J.C. Green.

The deceased leaves four children, Messrs. Winston and John Greenfield, Mrs. H.B. Randolph and Mrs. Jos. Dent. The family have the sympathy of a large circle of friends.