MRS. N.B. HARRISON DIES EARLY TODAY; FUNERAL ON FRIDAY

Mrs. Alice Harrison, widow of the late Nathan B. Harrison, passed away at an early hour today after an extended illness. She was one of Brunswick's oldest and best known residents.

Born in Camden County January 31, 1868, Mrs. Harrison was married to Mr. Harrison October 19, 1888, and she had made her home here for many years.

Mrs. Harrison had been a lifelong member of the First Methodist Church and for years a member of the local chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution. In her earlier life she was unusually active in religious and social affairs. She counted her many friends among all classes in the city, and she was loved by all of them. Mrs. Harrison was known for her many acts of charity, her interest in others, and her willingness to always do anything possible for friends as well as her family.

She is survived by five children, Mrs. Clyde Z. Walker, Decatur; Mrs. Isaac M. Aiken and Thomas D. Harrison, Brunswick; Spencer A. Harrison, Atlanta, and John P. Harrison, Piedmont, Ala., and the following grandchildren: Mrs. Walter Rylander, Americus; I.M. Aiken, Jr., Augusta; Harrison Aiken, U.S. Air Force; T.D. Harrison, Jr., Philadelphia; Misses Alice, Ellen and Mary V. Harrison and John P. Harrison, all of Piedmont, Ala. Two great grandchildren also survive.

Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the First Methodist Church, conducted by the Rev. E.J. Garbutt, assisted by the Rev. Talbert Morgan of St. Mark's Episcopal Church. Burial will be in Oak Grove Cemetery under the direction of the Miller Funeral Home. Pallbearers will be Dr. Robert S. Burford, Judge Frank M. Scarlett, Bernard N. Nightingale, E.J. Gayner III, W.E. Geiger, Walter Dunwody, Harry Parker and Osborne Morgan.
