

William Harris

The Brunswick News; Thursday 5 February 1925; pg. 8 col. 3

WILLIAM H. HARRIS, OLD CITIZEN, DIES AT HOME IN URBANA

Following a stroke of paralysis just two weeks ago today, William H. Harris, seventy-six years of age, passed away at his home in Urbana shortly after 10 o'clock this morning and the funeral will be held from the home tomorrow afternoon at 3:30, conducted by Rev. D. Watson Winn, of Christ church, Frederica, and interment will be in Oak Grove cemetery, in charge of Undertaker J.D. Baldwin.

Deceased was born in Brunswick on May 29th, 1848, and has lived here all of his life, following the carpenter trade until his health became so that he was unable to work. He leaves one son, W.H. Harris, Jr., and one daughter, Mrs. H.M. Bell, both of this city, and besides these he leaves a number of grandchildren and other relatives.

Being one of the city's oldest residents, Mr. Harris was known by many and esteemed by all.

The Brunswick News; Friday 6 February 1925; pg. 3 col. 1

FUNERAL OF W.H. HARRIS HELD THIS AFTERNOON-The funeral of William H. Harris, whose death was reported in these columns yesterday, is being held this afternoon from his late home in Urbana and is being conducted by Rev. D. Watson Winn, of St. Simons. Many friends of the deceased and his family are attending and the floral offerings are both bountiful and beautiful. Interment is being held in Oak Grove cemetery.