

Frank Herzog

The Brunswick News; Sunday 7 October 1928; pg. 6 col. 3

FRANK HERZOG, OLD LOCAL RESIDENT, DIES LAST NIGHT

Frank Herzog, a resident of Brunswick practically all of his life, passed away at 11 o'clock last night at the residence of Mrs. J.M. Hoodenpyle, 805 Monk street.

Mr. Herzog had been ill for two or three years and during the past few months his condition has been serious. He was well known among all of Brunswick's older residents. His only close relative is a brother, Ed Herzog, of Birmingham, also a former resident of Brunswick.

Funeral arrangements were not completed last night.

The Brunswick News; Monday 8 October 1928; pg. 8 col. 4

MR. HERZOG BURIED

The funeral of Frank Herzog, who died Saturday night after a long illness, was held this afternoon from the funeral parlors of Edo Miller, at 3:30 o'clock. The services were conducted by Rev. R.K. Tucker, rector of St. Mark's Episcopal church.

Interment was in Oak Grove cemetery. The pallbearers were as follows: D.W. Krauss, Joe Borchardt, G.H. Jennings, Thomas Hacket, Hanzel Baumgartner, Tom Hardcastle and A.J. Miller.

Published: 10/07/1928