

Otto Johannesen

The Brunswick News; Saturday 29 November 1913; pg. 1 col. 6

CAPT. JOHANNESSEN DIED YESTERDAY-Well Known Citizen Passes Away After a Long Illness.

The many friends of Capt. Otto Johannesen will be grieved to learn of his death which occurred at noon yesterday at his home on Mansfield street.

The captain came to America in 1875 from Christiansand, Norway, and to Brunswick in 1884, 30 years ago.

He has been identified very closely in the shipping business in this city and has been the port statician for years, probably being more capable to that line than any other one connected with marine reports.

He was a member of the Presbyterian church, of which he has been connected since his arrival in the city.

He leaves a wife, one son, Oscar Johannesen, of Tampa, Fla., two grandchildren in Macon, and one sister and two brothers in the old country.

To all of these the sympathy of the entire community goes out to their deep grief.

The funeral service will be held at the Presbyterian church this morning at [the rest of the article is too dark to be read-ALH].

Published: 11/29/1913