MRS. WM. E. KAY PASSES SUDDENLY IN JACKSONVILLE

Mrs. Emma Lucas Kay, widow of Col. W.E. Kay, died in a Jacksonville hospital yesterday shortly after she suffered a cerebral hemorrhage. Her death follows by a month and a half that of her husband, well known Jacksonville attorney and general solicitor for the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad.

Col. and Mrs. Kay resided in Brunswick for a long number of years, and both were popular among an unusually large number of friends here.

A native of Charleston, S.C., Mrs. Kay removed with her parents to Brunswick where her father, the Rev. Henry Lucas, served as rector of St. Mark's Episcopal church for a quarter century. She removed to Jacksonville in 1906, when Col. Kay was appointed assistant general counsel of the Coast Line.

Survivors include a son, William Archibald Kay, of New Jersey; and two daughters, Mrs. Edward Englis, of Miami, and Mrs. J. Wiley Pope, of Jacksonville.

Funeral services will be held here tomorrow afternoon at 1 o'clock. The funeral cortege will leave Jacksonville and come to St. Mark's church, where services will be conducted by the Rev. Royal K. Tucker. Burial will follow in Oak Grove cemetery. Mortician Edo Miller is in charge of local arrangements.
