

Martha Kenrick

Advertiser & Appeal; Vol. 2, No. 25; Wednesday 13 December 1876; pg. 1, col. 2

We are pained to announce the death of Miss Martha Julia Kenrick, youngest daughter of Mr. H.A. Kenrick of our city. She quietly passed away on the night of the 7th inst., having been a patient sufferer from consumption for the past year.

Death will sooner or later claim us all, we know, yet how sad to behold such as she snatched away just as they cross the threshold of bright young womanhood. it may indeed be said of her: "So life but opens now, and now decays, The cradle and the tomb alas so nigh, To live is scarce distinguished from to die."
