Mrs. Krauss was born in Jonesboro, Ga., January 17, 1886, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. T.S.L. Harwell. Her father was one of the original Methodist circuit riders.

She attended school in Jonesboro, and took an entrance examination for Wesleyan College, and her grade was so high that she began her college career as a member of the senior class and was graduated a year later. While at Wesleyan, she was a member of the Adelpian Sorority.

After her graduation she married the late Howard Parker, and following his death, she taught school in Valdosta and later moved to Brunswick. She was married to the late Judge Krauss August 16, 1908.

Mrs. Krauss was a member of the daughters of the American Revolution and once served as regent. She also was a member of the First Methodist church, where she was a Sunday school teacher for many years. The Minnie Lee Krauss Bible Class was named in her honor.
