

Charles Moodie

The Brunswick News; Thursday 28 February 1946; pg. 8 col. 5

FORMER RESIDENT PASSES IN MASS., FUNERAL BE HERE

Charles Dart Moodie, 30, who was born in Brunswick, but who had resided in Allston, Mass., for many years, died suddenly in that city Wednesday morning, relatives here have been advised, and funeral services will be held in this city.

Mr. Moodie left Brunswick with his parents when he was five years of age. His parents, who survive, are Andrew M. Moodie and Mrs. Ella Dart Moodie, both former well known local residents. Other survivors include one brother, Andrew M. Moodie [illegible] in the Army [illegible] in Japan, and two sisters, Mrs. Ellen Herbert, Allston, and Miss Laurel Moodie, a nurse in the armed services.

The body will arrive here Saturday morning and funeral services will be held at Miller's Funeral Home Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, to be conducted by the Rev. T.L. Harnsberger. Burial will be in Oak Grove cemetery.

Published: 2/28/1946