

William Moore

Advertiser & Appeal; Saturday 3 December 1881; pg. 3 col. 5

DIED-Yesterday morning, of inflammation of the stomach, Mr. W.O. Moore, of this city. When the aged and infirm pass away, we feel that such is but the natural course of things, but when those in the very bloom of young manhood are taken, how it shocks us!- The subject of this article was full of promise, and beloved by all who knew him, but the summons came and we are left to mourn his loss. Our heart's deepest sympathy goes out for the fond mother and doting father, as well as that elder brother and those affectionate sisters.

We are requested to give notice that Mr. Moore's funeral will take place to-day (Saturday) from the Episcopal church, at 3:00 P.M. All friends and acquaintances of the family are invited to attend.
