MISS NIGHTINGALE CLAIMED BY DEATH IN NEW HAMPSHIRE

Miss Frances N. Nightingale, a sister of Nat Nightingale of Brunswick, died Saturday in Peterborough, N.H.

The oldest daughter of William Nightingale and Mrs. Ellen D. Hazlehurst Nightingale, she lived the greater part of her life in New York, where she founded the Nightingale-Bamford School for Girls. In recent years her home has been in New Hampshire.

Miss Nightingale will be buried in Oak Grove cemetery here. Arrangements for the family committal service have not been completed.

Survivors are two other brothers, William Nightingale of Gordonsville, Va., and Douglas Nightingale of Savannah; three sisters, Mrs. James M. Rhett of Summit, N.J., and Mrs. Jeffray P. Woodriff of Somerset, Va., and Miss Virginia Nightingale of Savannah.
