

Charlotte Plant

The Brunswick Advocate; Saturday 23 March 1839; pg. 3 col. 5

DIED-In this city, on the 12th inst. Mrs. Charlotte, wife of I.C. Plant ,Esq., formerly of Leomister, Mass., in the 24th year of her age. Mrs. P. had been lingering for some months with that malady which has baffled the skill of all earthly physicians, but which was rendered less painful by the affectionate assiduity of a kind and tender husband. Throughout her illness she bore her suffering with that patience and resignation which become the truly pious, and living her faith firmly fixed on the promises of the Redeemer, died in the full hope of a glorious immortality.
