

Sarah Stallings

Advertiser & Appeal; Vol. 7, No. 16; 22 October 1881; pg. 3, col. 3

A SADDENED HOME

We are pained to announce the death of Mrs. D.B. Stallings, nee Miss Sarah Dart, of this city, which occurred on Tuesday last. She had been unwell for a few days, but was not considered dangerously ill. On Tuesday morning she was taken suddenly worse with a congestive chill, and by afternoon was a corpse. She leaves an affectionate husband and two little girls, besides an aged father and mother, a loving sister, and a large number of brothers and friends to mourn her early departure. To each and all of these we extend our heartfelt sympathy. Her remains were interred in Oak Grove Cemetery.

Published: 10/22/1881