HOPE STRONG, 70, FORMER RESIDENT, DIES IN FLORIDA

Hope Strong, 70, prominent Winter Park, Fla. attorney and former local resident, died last night in a hospital in that city following a heart attack Saturday.

In addition to his legal activities, Strong had been engaged in the real estate and citrus business. He was prominent in Winter Park civic affairs and had served as a member of the hospital board.

Strong left Brunswick in 1925 after practicing law for a number of years with the late Judge D.W. Krauss. He was a frequent visitor here and enjoyed a wide circle of friends.

Survivors include his widow, the former Dorothy Krauss; three sons, Capt. Hope Strong, Jr., Washington, D.C.; Dan Strong, Midland, Texas; and Lt. Willard Lee Strong, now stationed in the Azores. Eight grandchildren also survive.

Funeral arrangements are not complete, but services will be held Friday in Winter Park Episcopal Church.
