FORMER RESIDENT DIES IN FLORIDA

Funeral services were held at Miller's Chapel this afternoon for Mrs. Elizabeth Summerville, 72, an old Brunswick resident whose family was well known and prominent here many years ago. Mrs. Summerville died in Jacksonville yesterday. Funeral services were conducted by the Rev. H.T. Freeman, of the First Methodist church, and burial was in Oak Grove cemetery, where other members of her family are buried.

Before her marriage Mrs. Summerville was Miss Elizabeth Aymer. She left Brunswick more than 40 years ago. The family at one time resided on Union street, near the corner of George.
