

Paul Tolnas

Historical Newspapers, Birth, Marriage, & Death Announcements, 1851-2003; The Atlanta Constitution; 5 February 1913

CAUGHT IN MACHINERY AND DASHED TO DEATH

Brunswick, Ga., February 4-(Special)-The body of young Paul Tolnas, who was killed at the plant of the Yaryan Naval Stores company, was laid to rest in Oak Grove cemetery today. The tragic death of this well-known young man cast a shadow of gloom over the city.

The young man was one of the oilers at the large factory, and was in the act of oiling a large conveyor when a portion of his clothing was caught in the machinery, and in the twinkling of an eye he was dashed to death. His body was terribly mangled and he died before medical aid reached him. The young man was just 19 years of age, and had been a resident of Brunswick all of his life.

Published: 2/05/1913